CHANGES AND DEVELOPMENTS

New Databases of the North Caucasus and Central Asia from Integrum

Recently public interest has increased markedly to the Integrum databases of the North Caucasus and Central Asia. Currently the Integrum databases include 100 titles of the most widely read publications of the North Caucasus region. Through these sources the users may track the dynamics of the most significant events from multiple points of view. The North Caucasus region is represented by such publications as "Groznerskij rabochij" from the Chechen Republic and "Osetija segodnja" of North Ossetia•Alania, newspapers from the Republic of Dagestan such as "Dagestanskaja zhizn" and "Mahachkalinskie izvestija", Ingushetia and Kabardino•Balkaria are represented by "Golos Nazrani" and "Kabardin•balkarskaja pravda". The databases are constantly updated and expanded..

The Central Asia database includes reputable sources published in Central Asia. The publications presented both in the Russian and English languages highlight events in the political, economic and social life of the region. Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan and Uzbekistan are represented by official newspapers and the most popular business magazines. The database continues to grow.
