

Russian Electronic Databases from MIPP International

Integrum (www.integrumworld.com) represents the most comprehensive electronic archive of the most authoritative sources of information on Russia and the CIS countries.

Nowadays Integrum contains about 400 million documents in more than 5000 databases which include full-text versions of central and regional newspapers and magazines, teletypes of more than 400 information agencies, analytical and statistical bulletins, texts of laws and decrees, addresses and phones databases, full texts of Russian classic literary works. Integrum is not only the unique collection of the databases, but a set of professional search and analytical tools (Teletype, People today, Who? Where? When?, Comparative and Relative statistics) for the Russian mass media monitoring and the research of political, economic aspects of life in Russia.

University Library Online (www.biblioclub.ru) contains more than 20000 licensed e-books on Literature, History, Philosophy, Social Sciences, Culture, Arts and Religion. Here you will find Russian Classics, Study books, Encyclopedias, old and modern books, maps, illustrations, dictionaries and other useful information for those who are interested in the Russian language, literature, culture, politics and economics. All documents in the database are in Russian. The database is constantly replenished. We offer Unlimited IP-authorized page-by-page access to all e-books of University Library Online.

The Digital Dissertations Library. Russian State Library is a unique repository of originals of the dissertations on all subjects and specializations having been defended in Russia beginning from 1944. The number of the dissertations nowadays exceeds 900 000 volumes and increases by 30 000 annually. Electronic project "Digital Dissertations Library" (www.diss.rsl.ru) at the moment contains more than 550 000 full text dissertations and abstracts in various fields, including Philology, Philosophy, Economics, Law, Architecture, Art, Physics and Mathematics, Chemical, Biological, Technical Sciences, Medicine, Pharmacy and others.

Digital Dissertations Library allows researchers all over the world to get legal access to the most comprehensive electronic collection of dissertations from Russia.

The catalogue of the DDL RSL (<http://diss.rsl.ru/?menu=disscatalog>) is available in open access for every user.

Legislation of CIS Countries (www.base.spinform.ru) is a specialized law database where you will find legislation of 11 post-Soviet countries: Azerbaijan, Armenia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russia, Turkmenistan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan and Ukraine. The weekly updated database covers current topical papers, providing comprehensive information on all branches of the legislation in each country, as well as documents reflecting the inter-state relations of the CIS countries.

For more detailed information on supplied products, their subscription options and free trials, please, contact MIPP Electronic Resources Department at eresources@mippbooks.com